DO NOT LOSE YOUR OPT EMPLOYMENT ELIGIBILITY

The USCIS may reject I-765 applications for any of these reasons:
- I-765 form not signed
- Improper or missing payment
- I-20 not signed by student and/or DSO

The USCIS has accepted applications for processing and then 90 days later denied I-765 applications if the following occurs:
- Received more than 60 days after reported completion date on I-20
- Received more than 30 days after school or student signature date on I-20

Do not send materials that are out of date.

DOUBLE-CHECK SIGNATURES AND DATES

- Your I-765 should be sent no later than 20 days after I-20 issuance date.
- Your I-765 should be sent no later than 50 days after the completion date on your I-20.
- Double-check dates on the I-20, and contact ISSC immediately if you need a new updated I-20 form to submit with your application.

If you receive your materials back from USCIS, do not resend.
- Double-check dates on the I-20, and contact ISSC immediately if you need a new updated I-20 form to resubmit with your application.

If you will not complete your studies by the end date on your I-20
- Contact ISSC immediately (before your end date) for important advisement.

When you have properly filed your application for an Employment Authorization Document (EAD Card), you will receive a Notice of Action from the USCIS with a case number. You can use this case number to track your case online and submit a case inquiry at uscis.gov.

MAINTAINING STATUS WHILE ON POST-OPT

- Create SEVP Portal (SEVP will send an e-mail with instructions)
- Report changes in employment status, phone number, and/or residential address through the SEVP Portal within 10 days of the change.
- If you are still an active student at ASU, you must also report any address changes through My ASU
- Do not exceed the 90 day period of cumulative unemployment
- After completing OPT, you will have 60 day grace period
- If you do not complete your OPT period, contact ISSC@asu.edu

Travel signatures are only valid on your I-20 for six months while on OPT.

MAILING YOUR I-765 FORM

Using a large mailing envelope, write “I-765” on the lower left corner and write your return address on the top left corner.

Send it via regular mail to:
USCIS
